THE SYRACUSE CHILDREN'S CHORUS HOSTS A FALL FESTIVAL OF CHOIRS A concert to benefit the CNY Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure®

SYRACUSE, NY – The Syracuse Children's Chorus, under the Artistic Direction of Founder Barbara Marble Tagg, Associate Director, Deborah A. Cunningham and Assistant Director, Marcia DeMartini, is pleased to announce its first concert of the 2009-2010 season, A Fall Festival of Choirs. Come celebrate the talent of over 400 of the finest singers in Central New York as the Syracuse Children's Chorus shares the stage with the Syracuse University Oratorio Society under the direction of Dr. Elisa Macedo Dekaney, Syracuse Vocal Ensemble directed by Dr. Robert Cowles, the Kirk Choir of Park Central Presbyterian Church with director Dr. Julie Pretzat Merchant, and Silk & Satin Vocal Jazz Ensemble from Baker High School with director and accompanist Colin Keating, on Saturday, October 24, 2009 at 2:00pm at Most Holy Rosary Church in Syracuse. This collaborative afternoon of song represents school, church, community, volunteer, professional, and children's choirs – the first concert of its kind in Central New York featuring singers age eight to eighty. Choristers will sing music from jazz to the classics, and conclude with all participants singing Gregg Smith's moving selection, Now I Walk in Beauty. A portion of the proceeds from each ticket sold for this concert will benefit the CNY Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure®.

For ticket information please contact the Syracuse Children's Chorus office at 315.478.0582 or by e-mail at
